

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

Please do not complete this form if applying for Junior Membership or Bermuda Rowing Association Reciprocal. Separate forms are available.

Please PRINT all details of this application form except where a signature is requested. The Flag Officers at their discretion may decline to discuss an application if areas are incomplete or deemed insufficient.

Full Membership: A Full Membership shall be a single or joint household where one or more members have attained the age of at least eighteen years and have held a Provisional Membership for the Provisional Term (as required by the Membership Committee) and shall have been approved for election by the Membership Committee. The household shall include dependents up to the age of eighteen years, or the age of twenty-five years if in continuous full-time education. Either adult household member shall be eligible to represent the Full Membership at any Club functions or meetings and may serve on committees, excepting that only one may serve as an Officer of the Club simultaneously. (Club Rule Book 8.3)

Social Membership: A Social Membership shall be a single or joint household where one or more members have attained the age of at least eighteen years, and have held a Provisional Membership for the Provisional Term (as required by the Membership Committee) and shall have been approved for election by the Membership Committee. The household shall include dependents up to the age of eighteen years, or the age of twenty-five years if in continuous full-time education. Either adult household member shall be eligible to represent the Social Membership at any Club functions or meetings and may serve on committees.

Social Membership holders are not entitled to vote in any meetings of the Club or participate in the distribution of Club assets if any. A Social Membership does not provide entitlement to rent or lease-hold a marina berth or participate in the boat share. The holder of a Social Membership may apply for a Full Membership of the Club by applying in accordance with Rule 8.3. If elected to Full Membership he shall be required to pay the appropriate Entrance Fee. (Club Rule Book 8.4)

RHADC DATA SHEET

Welcome to The Royal Hamilton Amateur Dinghy Club, a mix of traditional & contemporary where members meet and guests feel like family.

- Brief History of RHADC: The Royal Hamilton Amateur Dinghy Club was founded in 1882. The following year H.R.H. Princess Louise visited Bermuda and while here, granted the Club it's Royal Charter. Over the years, the "Royal" designation was dropped, but after application to H.M. Queen Elizabeth II it was decided to reapply, and confirmation was received in 1953. The R.H.A.D.C. remains the only "Royal" Dinghy Club in the world. The original flag of HDC (Hamilton Dinghy Club) remains framed and displayed proudly on the club premises.
